Director's Comments:

Director's Report attached.

Members' Comments:

Gene Walsh reported that the Friends' Indoor Golf event has been postponed. The Friends purchased a new display case for Reference. The Friends annual meeting and appreciation luncheon will be held on Saturday, April 12th. The Friends and Lions Club are financially supporting the Library movie nights.

Robert Homeyer spoke to the Town Manager regarding the upkeep of the Library Building. The Town Manager was going to ask the engineer working on the Town Hall project to look at the building to see if there are any immediate issues that need to be dealt with. Ruth Chou of the Republican Town Committee has volunteered to donate copies of nonfiction books on the subject of politics to the Library.

Paige Impink attended the Dewing School night at the Library. There were approximately 150 people that came and 36 new families that signed up for library cards. The North Street School night will be held next Wednesday night. Noelle is being very proactive with the schools to help update the summer reading lists.
